THE BOSTON MARATHON BOMBINGS | THE EXPLOSIONS

Posted April 15, 2013

On April 15, Steve Silva, a videographer with the Globe's sports department, was gathering footage for a feature on slower runners, when two bombs exploded near the finish line of the Boston Marathon. His video, which captured the actual moment of the blasts and the immediate aftermath, was posted shortly after the explosions and viewed 6,431,310 times on the Globe's website that week. It has now been viewed a total of more than 24 million times on YouTube. This is a condensed version of his raw footage.
